Monetary.
The foreign news continues very favorable for American interests. The grain accounts are strong. The demand for money in London was increasing, however, the continued drain of gold to this country exciting some uneasiness. American railway accounts showed great business in answer to the low figures from this side.

The golden shower continues. The influx of specie at New York, on Thursday, was about two millions and a quarter. The Northern Light, from California, brings $1,445,000, in addition to $875,000 by the Australia.

The steamship Northern Light, from Aspinwall, on Christmas day, arrived at New York on Thursday. She brings $1,445,380 in treasure, an extraordinary large shipment—probably increased by demands from the East. She also brings 220 passengers and the California mails of the 11th of December.

Alexandria Market, January 5.
The market for flour is firm, with sales at the retail rate. Flour is quiet—sales at $3.50; extra $3.60; and $3.75, according to grade. In wheat, there are no active offerings, and the receipts are better. We note sales of flour to prime white at 130, 140, 142, and 144, and red 125 and 130, for same quality. Corn is in line with light receipts. There were no offerings of corn on "Change." Sugar is coming in slowly, and we quote family dressed hogs at $6.75 (25). The grocery business is about on a stand, and yet, while there is a slight advance in the price of sugar, there is no material change in prices here.

New York Market.
NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Cotton is firm; sales today of 7,500 bales. Upstairs offerings ranged from 12 1/2 to 13. Flour is quiet—sales at $3.50; extra $3.60; and $3.75, according to grade. In wheat, there are no active offerings, and the receipts are better. We note sales of flour to prime white at 130, 140, 142, and 144, and red 125 and 130, for same quality. FROM WASHINGTON.

PANIC IN WASHINGTON.
FORT WASHINGTON OCCUPIED.
General Scott Preparing for Defence.
THE BORDER STATE COMMITTEE.

THE GAZETTE'S SPECIAL DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The signs of the times indicate that all the conservatives here will rally upon Mr. Crittenden's proposition as the last hope of the Union. This week will decide the fate of that measure.

There seems to be no doubt that a considerable United States military force will be concentrated in this city on the fourth of March next, under the immediate command of Gen. Scott. On that occasion, Mr. Buchanan purposes tendering his carriage to Mr. Lincoln, and he will accompany and be associated with him during the inauguration ceremonies.

A rumor which prevailed that the United States ship-of-war Brooklyn had been ordered to take refuge to Charleston, is pronounced to be false by official authority.

Mr. Huger, the Postmaster at Charleston, has written the Postmaster-General that he holds himself responsible to the Federal Government for the revenue accruing at his office. For the present, therefore, the postal arrangements continue unchanged.

The War Department says that before June last it was found that the arms at the several arsenals were not proportionately distributed, and that Southern arsenals were quite deficient in the supplies, a distribution was made for equalization only, and for no other object. After this distribution was completed, there remained a preponderance of arms at the North.

It is said that on Wednesday last, the Secretary of War, Mr. Holt, issued an order commanding that of Secretary Floyd, who had heretofore directed the shipment of a large number of heavy guns to the fortification on the Gulf.

Gen. Totten has resumed his duties as head of the Engineer Department, and Col. Craig as head of the Ordnance Department, by order of the Secretary of War.

The city is believed to be on the eve of a terrible calamity, and no one knows what events the next hour may produce.

The steamer Philadelphia, which was undergoing repairs at the Seventh street wharf, was suddenly ordered on Saturday evening to leave for New York, where she received sixty-two marines, in command of Major Torrey and Lieut. Meire, and conveyed them to Fort Washington, which is eight miles below Alexandria, on the Maryland shore.

Three hundred United States troops arrived at the Navy Yard barracks on Saturday evening last.

Gen. Scott, on Saturday, had a topographical survey of the city made, and the points of defence marked out. The members of Congress attending their wives and children away from the city.

A great many Southern members have left for their homes. Most of the Virginia delegates are absent.

The members of the various volunteer companies have been ordered each to have their arms in readiness, and each have been served with ready rounds of ammunition.

Incendiarism is rife in our midst. Five every night.

Cause, committees, sub-committees, and conferences, all have failed, and no prospect for a solution of our difficulties is apparent.

The course of the President, in garrisoning Fort Washington, is severely condemned, and the Abolitionists, who have brought all this trouble upon us, will have a terrible crime to answer for.

Russell's bill has been reduced to $50,000, and his release is soon expected.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The Committee on the part of the Border States, held their second meeting last night, and adopted the following propositions:—Recommending the repeal of all the personal liberty bills; an efficient amendment of the fugitive slave law, proven kidnapping; equalizing the commissions, fees, etc.; that the Constitution be so amended as to prohibit any interference with slavery in any of the States that Congress shall not abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, without the consent of the inhabitants, and without compensation; that Congress shall not interfere with the inter-State slave trade; that there shall be a perpetual prohibition of the African slave trade; that the line of 36° 30' shall be run through all the existing territory of the United States, and in all north of that line slavery shall be prohibited, whilst south of the line neither Congress nor the Territorial Legislature shall hereafter pass any law abolishing or prohibiting or in any manner interfering with African slavery; and when any territory containing sufficient population for one member, in any of sixty thousand square miles, shall apply for admission into the Union, it shall be admitted with or without slavery, as its constitution may determine.

The propositions are understood to have been presented by Mr. Barrett, of Missouri, based upon Senator Crittenden's Union resolutions.

Iowa was the only one of the fourteen Border States which was not represented, and Mr. Vandever's absence was caused by a severe domestic affliction.

The Committee reported at the meeting Maryland, Virginia, Missouri, North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Arkansas, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey.

The Republicans of both Houses of Congress are again in caucus today. They find that prompt action is necessary, as to any concessions they may be inclined to make. Their object is to agree on some uniform legislative action.

Exciting Meeting at Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—An adjourned meeting of citizens to consider the state of the Union, took place at the Board of Trade Rooms, tonight, at seven. The committee to whom the resolutions at the previous meeting were referred, made no report, and there being an evident determination on the part of many present, who did not participate in the last meeting, to force the passage of Judge Lewis' non-executive resolutions, which was resisted by prominent Republicans, an exciting scene of disorder occurred, during which District Attorney Mann showed a willingness to fight on the spot.

On motion of a Republican, the meeting adjourned, but another was immediately called at the same place, when Judge Lewis was placed in the Chair.

Resolutions were then offered denouncing personal liberty bills, etc., and approving Mr. Crittenden's resolutions, and adopted unanimously.

The Republicans refused to participate in the Second meeting, and manifested much ill feeling at the conduct of their political opponents in thus overruling them.

Offer of Pennsylvania Volunteers.
WEST CHESTER, Jan. 5.—A meeting has been called here to the recruitment of volunteers to the President to aid in the maintenance of the constitution and the enforcement of the laws.

Adjournment of the South Carolina Convention.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 5.—In convention today an ordinance was introduced that all the power necessary to make postal arrangements and enact postal laws be vested in the general assembly; which was passed.

A resolution was introduced permitting the officers of any force, regular or volunteer, raised under order of this convention, to hold seats in either house of the general assembly, or any other officer similarly appointed. Adopted.

Another resolution was adopted that the late commissioners to Washington be requested to prepare at their earliest convenience a written statement of their oral communications to this body, their recent attempt at negotiations with the President of the United States for the delivery of the forts and other State property; and that said document be deposited with the President of this body with the injunction of secrecy until otherwise ordered.

Five thousand copies of the correspondence between the Commissioners and the President of the United States were ordered to be printed.

The table, chair, and other appurtenances used on the night of signing the ordinance of secession were ordered to be placed in the State House at Columbia.

The adoption of a national ensign is to be left to the legislature.

The convention then adjourned until again called together by the president.

Latest from Charleston.
CHARLESTON, Jan. 5.—The journals published a correspondence between the South Carolina commissioners and the President of the United States.

President A. B. Longstreet, of the South Carolina College, issues a four-page pamphlet, entitled "Shall South Carolina be the War?" He earnestly desires the collector on board the Harriet Lane to be allowed to land, he treated politely, he introduced to Mr. Colcock, that every means be used so that the collectors of the two sovereign powers can settle their respective claims in a spirit of courtesy and kindness.

He says if the posts should be reinforced, he would be the first to lead. Hundreds of our sons would be slain, Fort Moultrie would become deserted, and the wrath of the United States be brought upon our devoted city. He imploringly closes by saying, "Let the first shot come from our enemies."

The president of the convention today received a telegram from the Mayor of Charleston, saying that New Orleans sympathizes with Charleston in the perils to which she is exposed, and will not fail to support her when occasion requires her action.

The Florida Convention.
TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 5.—Judge McGehee, of Madison, has been elected permanent president of the Convention.

The meeting of the convention was consumed in perfecting an organization.

In the afternoon session, resolutions were offered, declaring the right of Florida to secede, declaring cause for its secession, and the duty of the State to prepare for it.

Discussions resulted on the policy of the immediate passage of these resolutions, and they were made the Special Order for Monday.

The Convention then adjourned till Monday.

Seizure of Fort Mangan by Mobile Troops.
MOBILE, Jan. 4.—P. M.—Fort Morgan was, as expected, taken this morning by the Mobile troops, and it is now garrisoned by two hundred men.

Exciting Meeting at Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 5.—An adjourned meeting of citizens to consider the state of the Union, took place at the Board of Trade Rooms, tonight, at seven. The committee to whom the resolutions at the previous meeting were referred, made no report, and there being an evident determination on the part of many present, who did not participate in the last meeting, to force the passage of Judge Lewis' non-executive resolutions, which was resisted by prominent Republicans, an exciting scene of disorder occurred, during which District Attorney Mann showed a willingness to fight on the spot.

IMPETIGNE, THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM.

FOR THE prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who had been a great traveler in Persia and the Holy Land.

While going down their Ephraim, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took him to his person, and saying, "If you die, you are from Persia, will you touch me?" Although incredulous as to its virtues, he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

The further investigation he found that the boatman attributed it to miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Some time afterwards, the gentleman in company with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and secured where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, he has been tried with the happiest effect several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been used by the Priests of the Sun, and for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers—is now offered to the American people.

It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use on receipt of $1.00.
